

• brings together Paul Tomkins's™ best writing on Liverpool Football Club, covering a period of incredible highs and desperate lows. This anthology mixes his best internet articles with key chapters from his early books, which appear here for the first time in digital format. It's™ all present: being in Istanbul and Athens for the two Champions League Finals; the ownership wrangles, sackings, and returning heroes; spending exclusive time with Rafa Benitez and John W Henry; and witnessing a team lurch from becoming Champions of Europe and challenging for the title to appearing a million miles from winning anything.
